Week In Review

Monday we celebrated National French Toast day; clipped coupons; and played Jeopardy.

Tuesday we made yummy Gingerbread cookies that were too pretty to eat (though we did at snacktime!) And we enjoyed College Game Day with Ely Lilly volunteers, Brandon, Andy and Quinn—Thanks, guys for a fun day of football, corn hole and college sports trivia!

Wednesday we played Wheel of Fortune; sang Karaoke; and made fun Jingle Bells crafts .

Thursday we discussed all things December, welcoming the new month (Christmas is coming!...); and played a list game called 'Name 5'.

Friday we worked puzzles, played card games; and enjoyed Neal's lively piano playing. Always a treat!

Best Wishes, Mary!

Your beautiful, loving, cheerful afternoon Receptionist will be leaving us today as she moves on to her next adventure in life! Though retiring, Mary will most likely keep herself very busy spreading her love and blessing others with her special grace. Mary, Thank You for showing us all that being kind and generous is an easy way to make someone else's day better. And Thank You also for making our lives better simply by being a part of them. We will miss you. God Bless You!
